Authorization for Release of Student’s Confidential Information by Central Ohio Technical College

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student educational records, both financial and academic. For the student’s protection, FERPA generally limits, with certain exceptions, release of student information without the student’s explicit written consent. In order to release information concerning your financial and academic records, your authorization is needed.

To authorize the Academic and Financial offices of COTC to release information to you and any persons you list below via the telephone or in person, please complete, sign and return this form to The Gateway. All COTC staff will respond to email via COTC issued email accounts only.

Note: This authorization remains in effect until revoked by student in writing.

I, _____ (student name), give permission to the department(s) checked below to disclose information maintained by COTC. As Financial Aid and Fees & Deposits information are closely linked with each other and with Student Records, I understand that the authorization of release of such information may also include academic information (such as grades), even if I do not select “Student Records” below.

The following information must be provided to verify the authenticity of requests for your CONFIDENTIAL information. Any persons authorized below to request information on your behalf must be able to provide the student’s name, COTC ID, and secret code word.
