POLICY STATEMENT
Central Ohio Technical College is committed to building and maintaining a diverse community to reflect human diversity, and to improve opportunities for all. The college is committed to equal opportunity and eliminating discrimination. This commitment is both a moral imperative consistent with an intellectual community that celebrates individual differences and diversity, as well as matter of law.

Central Ohio Technical College does not discriminate on the basis of age, ancestry, color, disability, gender identity or expression, genetic information, HIV/AIDS status, military status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, protected veteran status, or any other basis under the law, in its activities, programs, admission, and employment.

Definitions

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Term</th>
<th>Definition</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Applicant</td>
<td>An individual who has applied for a specific position at Central Ohio Technical College, meets the basic qualifications for the position, is considered by the college for the position, and does not voluntarily remove herself/himself from the position.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Discrimination</td>
<td>Discrimination (disparate treatment and disparate impact) occurs when an adverse employment action is taken and is based upon a protected status. There are two forms of discrimination: disparate treatment and disparate impact. Disparate treatment occurs when an employee suffers less favorable treatment than others because of the protected status. Disparate impact occurs when an employment policy, although neutral on its face, adversely impacts persons in a protected status.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Equal Employment Opportunity</td>
<td>All persons regardless of age, ancestry, color, disability, gender identity or expression, genetic information, HIV/AIDS status, military status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, protected veteran status or any other basis under the law shall have equal access to positions in the public service, limited only by their ability to do the job.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Harassment*</td>
<td>(1) Unwelcome, protected class-based verbal or physical conduct that (2) is sufficiently severe, persistent or pervasive that (3) it unreasonably interferes with, denies or limits an individual’s ability to participate in or benefit from the college’s education and employment programs and activities; and (4) is based on power differentials (quid pro quo) or the creation of a hostile environment.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>*This definition does not include sexual harassment. See Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Harassment and Relationship Violence policy 2.1.20, for the definition of sexual harassment.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Protected Class</td>
<td>Protected class is defined by federal law/executive order or COTC policy.</td>

College Policy

Applies to: Faculty, staff, student employees, students, volunteers, and applicants

Policy Details

I. Guiding principles
   A. Recruitment processes should be designed and conducted so as to result in the most diverse and qualified applicant pool possible.
   B. Selection practices should emphasize hiring the best-qualified individuals.
   C. Management practices should facilitate inclusive work environments that value and seek out human diversity and reward effective human relations skills.
   D. College practices should emphasize prevention of discrimination and harassment.
   E. Training and development opportunities should be made available to employees and should enhance the opportunities for individuals from underrepresented groups.
   F. Promotion practices should be inclusive and provide equal opportunity for individuals from underrepresented groups.

PROCEDURE

I. Making a complaint of discrimination/harassment

   Complaints can be filed by contacting the Office of Human Resources or by submitting a completed Discrimination/Harassment Complaint Form to the Office of Human Resources. Complaints of discrimination should be filed within 180 calendar days of notice of the event(s) that gave rise to the complaint.
   A. Allegations can be made by individuals who are directly involved in, who observe or who receive reliable information that discrimination/harassment may have occurred.
   B. Allegations of sexual misconduct, which includes sexual harassment, are handled under Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Harassment and Relationship Violence, Policy 2.1.20.
   C. Allegations of all other forms of discrimination/harassment involving students in the nonemployment setting can be filed by contacting the Office of the Director of Student Life.
   D. Filing a complaint with Central Ohio Technical College Office of Human Resources does not preclude the individual from filing a complaint with an external agency nor does it extend time limits with those agencies.
   E. Individuals who wish to make a complaint of discrimination/harassment (outside of sexual harassment) should:
      1. Talk with the responsible party if desired and if comfortable doing so.
      2. Seek to resolve the situation in consultation with the supervisor and/or executive leadership team member if desired and comfortable doing so.
      3. If the issue is not resolved through #1 and #2, contact the Office of Human Resources. Submit a completed Discrimination/Harassment Complaint Form.
      4. Provide witness and/or documentation from individuals that have first-hand knowledge of the situation.
      5. Respect the confidentiality of all parties.
      6. Keep the investigator informed of any new concerns or actions taken against the complainant during the investigation.

II. Confidentiality

   The college recognizes the importance of confidentiality. To the extent possible, all information received in connection with the filing, investigation and resolution of allegations will be treated as confidential except when necessary to conduct an appropriate investigation, to provide assistance and resources to complainants, to perform other appropriate college functions, or when the college is compelled to produce information in accordance with the law. When requests for confidentiality arise, they will be evaluated by the Office of Human Resources or in the cases of sexual misconduct, which includes sexual harassment, by the Title IX coordinator. All individuals involved in the process should observe the same standard of discretion and respect for the reputation of everyone involved in the process.

III. Retaliation

   The college will not tolerate retaliation in any form against any individual who makes an allegation, files a report,
Applies to: Faculty, staff, student employees, students, volunteers, and applicants serves as a witness, assists a complainant, or participates in an investigation of discrimination or harassment. College policy and state and federal law prohibit retaliation against an individual for reporting discrimination or harassment, or for participating in an investigation. Retaliation is a serious violation that can subject the offender to discipline, up to and including termination of employment and/or student status, independent of the merits of the underlying allegation. Allegations of retaliation should be directed to the Office of Human Resources, or in cases of sexual misconduct, which includes sexual harassment, to the Title IX coordinator.

IV. Job posting language
   A. Required tagline for job postings: COTC is an equal opportunity employer.
   B. Recommended (optional) tagline for job postings: Central Ohio Technical College is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability status or protected veteran status.
