Policy Details

I. General standards of ethical conduct

A. Central Ohio Technical College employees must, at all times, abide by protections to the public embodied in Ohio’s ethics laws, as found in Chapters 102 and 2921 of the Ohio Revised Code, and as interpreted by the Ohio Ethics Commission and Ohio courts.

B. The college provides each new employee with information about this legislation, and obtain written acknowledgement of receipt, as required in R.C. 102.09(D). The most current version of the Ohio Ethics Law and related statutes are available online at http://www.ethics.ohio.gov/education. Officials and employees must conduct themselves, at all times, in a manner that avoids favoritism, bias, and the appearance of impropriety.

C. A general summary of the restraints upon the conduct of all officials and employees includes, but is not limited to, those listed below. No employee shall:

1. Solicit or accept anything of value from anyone doing business with the college;
2. Solicit or accept employment from anyone doing business with the college, unless the official or employee completely withdraws from college activity regarding the party offering employment, and the college approves the withdrawal;
3. Use his or her public position to obtain benefits for the official or employee, a family member, or anyone with whom the official or employee has a business or employment relationship;
4. Be paid or accept any form of compensation for personal services rendered on a matter before any board, commission, or other body of the college, unless the official or employee qualifies for the exception, and files the statement, described in R.C. 102.04(D);
5. Hold or benefit from a contract with, authorized by, or approved by, the college, (the Ethics Law does except some limited stockholdings, and some contracts objectively shown as the lowest cost services, where all criteria under R.C. 2921.42 are met);

6. Vote, authorize, recommend, or in any other way use his or her position to secure approval of a college contract (including employment or personal services) in which the official or employee, a family member, or anyone with whom the official or employee has a business or employment relationship, has an interest;

7. Solicit or accept honoraria (see R.C. 102.01(H) and 102.03(H));

8. During public service, and for one year after leaving public service, represent any person, in any fashion, before any public agency, with respect to a matter in which the official or employee personally participated while serving with the college;

9. Use or disclose confidential information protected by law, unless appropriately authorized; or

10. Use, or authorize the use of, his or her title, the name “Central Ohio Technical College” or “COTC” or the Central Ohio Technical College’s logo in a manner that suggests impropriety, favoritism, or bias by the college or the official or employee.

II. Penalties
Failure of any college official or employee to abide by this Ethics policy, or to comply with the Ethics Law and related statutes, will result in discipline, which may include dismissal, as well as any potential civil or criminal sanctions under the law.
