

3357:3-3-08 Grant Proposals and Grant Administration

The following rules of the College are established:

- (A) The college may seek grants and contracts that will advance the college's mission, including the quality of the college's curriculum and instruction, workforce development, and service to the community.
- (B) The college shall abide by all federal, state, and other grantor requirements. Conflicts between such requirements and college policies or procedures shall be resolved by the President.
- (C) The President has sole authority to commit the college to the terms and conditions of grant or a contract for which the college receives moneys for a particular programmatic purpose.

The President or designee is authorized by the Board of Trustees to establish policies to implement these rules.
