The U.S. Department of Education conducts a “match” of financial aid applicants with other Federal agencies and programs, (i.e. Social Security Administration, Department of Homeland Security, Selective Service, National Student Loan Database System, etc.). One or more attempts by the U.S. Department of Education has identified your application as a “failed match.” This occurred because the student name, date of birth, or social security number you reported on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) did not match the Social Security Administration’s records.

You must submit a readable copy of your signed Social Security Card and Driver’s License/State ID card with this form to Student Financial Services. On your behalf, a correction may be submitted to the Central Processing System (U.S. Department of Education).

Please check if you would like this information forwarded to the Gateway to update the college system.
