

3357:3-3-08 Grant proposals and grant administration

The following rules of the college are established:

- (A) The college may seek grants that will advance the college's mission, including the quality of the college's curriculum and instruction, workforce development, and service to the community.
- (B) The college shall abide by all federal, state, and other grantor requirements. Conflicts between such requirements and college policies or procedures shall be resolved by the president.
- (C) The president has sole authority to commit the college to the terms and conditions of grant for which the college receives moneys for a particular programmatic purpose.

The president or designee is authorized by the board of trustees to establish policies to implement these rules.
